

HIV Infections Rising in NYC:

Presented by
Congressman Anthony D. Weiner
May 11, 2008

Key findings in the new Gay Men (between ages 20-29) HIV infections on the rise in NYC analysis:

- In 2001 there was a 2.6 percent decrease of Gay men (between ages 20-29) in New York infected with HIV;
- Largest increase of Gay men (between ages 20-29) infected with HIV, where there was a 10.5 percent spike in 2003;
- The number of Gay Men(between ages 20-29) infected with HIV is up 24.5 percent since 2001 and;
- After the number of Gay men (between ages 20-29) infected with HIV decreasing in 2002, the number increased by 10.5 percent by 2003 and has continued spike.